Note: Automated indexing research from 2000-2025 was led by a core group of indexing specialists and experts affiliated with or working at the NLM, with nine of the top ten researchers co-authoring two-thirds (66%) of all publications (n=42). Collaboration networks are dense with Mork, Aronson, Demner-Fushman, Neveol, and Jimeno-Yepes frequently collaborating and co-authoring. Among the top ten, only pharmacy researcher Fernandez-Llimos (n=4, 6%) had no NLM affiliation.
